

Make Internet browsing faster, easier and more efficient with the new ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar

ONSPEED, in partnership with YAHOO!, is offering a free toolbar to all its customers

LONDON, UK – December 21st 2005 – ONSPEED, a subsidiary of Z GROUP and the brand leader in Internet acceleration, announces the launch of the ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar. The toolbar, released in partnership with Yahoo!, puts a search box on the users Internet browser, making it much easier and faster to find anything on the web.

The ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar enables customers to quickly search the Internet from anywhere online and allows them to instantly access their favourite sites. The ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar protects the users PC from spyware and eliminates annoying pop-ups. The toolbar lets users create their own personal online archive by saving their favourite pages, search results, and search history.

"The ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar helps optimise the Internet experience for our ONSPEED customers," says Meghan Cady, Marketing Director of Z GROUP. "This new toolbar offers users the opportunity to harness the Web's resources to best suit their individual needs."

The ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar is now available free of charge from www.onspeed.com as a small 1 MB download, which takes less than 2 minutes to install. The ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar is currently available for Windows only.

ONSPEED YAHOO! toolbar Features include:

- Create your own personalised Internet where you can browse easier with extra speed
- Quickly search the Web from anywhere online
- Instantly save and "re-find" pages with My Web
- Protect your PC from spyware
- Instantly access your favourite sites
